

one of the few things government has done right lately--get the credit card companies off my private telephone--wisconsin got it right--now keep the federal gov't from screwing it up--keep big business out of my private life-don't touch the NO CALL LIST